

Privacy Policy of the 6/80 & MO Club Website (page 1 of 3)

This privacy policy sets out how the 6/80 & MO Club Website uses and protects any information that you give the 6/80 & MO Club when you use this website.

The 6/80 & MO Club is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

The 6/80 & MO Club may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from [date].

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- your full name
- contact information including email address
- demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests
- other information relevant to the Club

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- Internal record keeping.
- We may use the information to improve our Website and other Club services.
- We may periodically send emails about new developments in the Club or of the Website, which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to your needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the use of your email address in the following ways:

- Visit the Forums section and edit your profile. Set the option “Always show my e-mail address” to “No”. Your email address will not be visible to other users of the Forums, and will not show up when you insert an ad in the “Parts exchange” section of the Members’ Area. You will, however, still receive notifications of Club or Website related events or developments.
- If you do not wish to be notified by email of Club or Website related events or developments, set the profile option “Do not send me Club notifications” to “Yes”.
- You can also change these preferences at any time by writing or emailing the Website Manager.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

- You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please send an email to the Website Manager

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please email the Website Manager as soon as possible. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
